

Lynn Kirck

Lynn was born in Wisconsin and has always been interested in art and photography and various hobbies.

She attended the Madison Technical College.

Worked in graphic arts and started painting during her time off. She started joining different art clubs and received her signature membership in the Colorado Watercolor Society.

Because of her love of nature she became interested in painting outdoors and now leads a plan-air group. She paints in a variety of mediums, and Lynn's favorite subject is nature and the challenge of capturing its changing mood.